The Connecticut Law Tribune is the state's only weekly and daily online publication devoted to covering the legal community, giving legal professionals the latest developments in Connecticut's courts, law firms and legislature. Each week, the newspaper focuses dedicated sections and special sections on Corporate & Business law, Civil & Family law, Prosecution & Defense, Government & Agencies, and its regular look inside the profession in "The Practice." The weekly "Connecticut Opinions" supplement and online website covers the Superior Court, federal courts and state administrative agency opinions with head notes and indexes, as well as verdicts and settlements.
